GOOD STOCKS.

Three Fresh Halibuts With Splendid Records.

Sch. Effie M. Morrissey, Capt. Joshua W. Stanley, stocked $2725 on her recent shack trip, the crew sharing $75. The Morrissey will now continue shacking under command of Capt. Henry Atwood. Capt. Stanley will stay ashore to wait for his new schooner, which will soon be ready. She has been named LIZZIE M. STANLEY, in honor of the captain's wife. Capt. Stanley has for years been one of the leaders of the fresh fishing fleet and his host of friends hope that his success will continue in his new craft.
Sch. Pauline, Capt. Patrick Vale, stocked $2000 as the result of her recent Georges handline trip.
Sch. Atalanta, Capt. Richard Wadding, stocked $3300 as the result of her recent fresh halibut trip, the crew sharing $85.
Sch. Gladiator, Capt. James Bowie, took out $1470 worth of fresh halibut at Boston Tuesday and is at this port with 20,000 pounds of salt cod, which will give her a fine stock. Previous to this trip, Capt. Jerome McDonald's three halibuters, the Gladiator, Capt. Bowie, Senator, Capt. John McKay, and Preceptor, Capt. James Goodwin, have made a remarkable record, the three vessels having averaged $20,000 each since January last. This speaks volumes for the ability of the three skippers above mentioned.
Sch. Dictator, Capt. Lemuel Spinney, stocked $3074 on her recent cod and halibut trip, the crew sharing $69.39.
Sch. Gladiator, Capt. James Bowie, stocked $1993 on her recent halibut trip, the crew sharing $46.65.

Mackerel Notes.

The Portland News of Saturday, says: "Illustrative of the way Sol Jacobs hustles was his action while in port yesterday. A small accident had happened to the backing gear of the engine and the schooner put into this harbor to have a new casting made. The schooner had 130 barrels of salt mackerel and some of the Portland dealers were anxious to buy them. A satisfactory price was made and Capt. Jacobs was about to sell when he heard that fish had been seen off Mount Desert Rock. He at once cast off his lines and in five minutes after receiving the news was on his way to the grounds."
The fare of sch. John S. Presson sold to the Gloucester Mackerel Co. for $2300.
